NEW BUSINESS:

Central Florida Best Of The Blues CD:

Herb Ransburg received CD's from Canada from. Reno suggested that no more than one song from each band be selected for the first compilation CD. A discussion to amend the date so that more people could submit songs followed. Rather than extending the date, the Board is getting in touch with those who submitted songs that had a problem converting to an MP3, and will get them to resubmit their songs as an MP3.

CD Artwork:

To be discussed at the next meeting.

OBBS SPONSORED EVENTS AND FESTIVALS:

Blues In The School :

Lake Mary Elementary School donated $100 donation to the OBBS BITS program in appreciation for the performances there in February.

Ladies of the Blues Show 4:

Jann Childers discussed the promotions of LOB; radio and TV. Jann is still firming up the interviews, and hoping that the SBK Radio show comes through. She is waiting for confirmation from the Show Director. Jann contacted BB Kings, who is distributing the 4x4 flyers to hotels throughout the area hotels, and wanted more flyers to hand out.

Jann also mentioned about giving a “certificate” of appreciation out to those who were supporters of OBBS, example; ZShows, BB Kings.

Jann asked Herb if he would send out an email promoting the LOB4 show.

Herb Ransburg discussed about asking for funds from the G.I. Musicians Relief Fund for Beeper and for Laura David. Both musicians are asking for a donation due to health issues. A decision was made for giving $250 to Beeper and $250 to Laura David.

Volunteers For Events: Jan Dake said that she had gotten volunteers for the LOB4 show and the CFBC show.

OBBS Tent/Booth: Jan Dake went and shopped for a Canopy, but found they were all out at one location. A discussion was brought up over the different locations to shop for the Canopy and other supplies we need for our booth.

Sponsorship Banners: A discussion within the Board over how big they would be, but it will be ready for the Daytona Blues Festival. The Board discussed who would be working the booth for the festival.

MEMBERSHIPS:

Di Walker renewed her membership and gave a $25 donation to OBBS.

Meeting Adjourned: 7:55pm
